OBITUARY

Mother Malissie Hinkle was born to the proud parents James Newton and Phillimenia Stafford in the Phillippines, Island, on November 30, 1901. While a very young child, she moved with her family from the Phillippines to the State of California.

She later moved to Los Angeles, California where she lived and was reared by the Driver Family. After becoming a lady, she moved to Merced, California and lived there for a few years.

Later she was married to Mr. Hinkle and he preceeded her in death.

In 1956 she moved to Richmond, California, and lived here until her passing. After coming to Richmond, she heard the gospel preached in the beauty of holliness and she accepted Christ as her personal Savior and was saved and sanctified and filled with the Holy Ghost under the leadership of the late Bishop G. W. McGlothen. She was a faithful member, loyal, willing, and ready to work wherever her hands found to do.

After the passing of her late pastor, she continued to work faithfully under the present pastor, Elder Clarence Davis. She loved her pastor very much and would be happy to follow him to the various meetings. She loved her church and was a worker in the Y.W.CC, the Sunday School, the Hospitality, the Bible Band, and the YPWW, and certainly she loved the Pastor's Bible Class Study. She was an all around member, and will be sadly missed by the McGlothen Church Family.

Mother Hinkle was a graceful saint, she was always full of smiles, and was always ready to help scatter sunshine whereever she could. She was a beautiful seamstress and made many friends while in the field of sewing. She will be missed by many for she has touched many lives during her lifetime.

A few days ago, she was stricken with an illness she could not overcome, and on Sunday, January 23, 1983 in a local hospital in San Pablo, she passed away from this life to a place where no sorrow can never come.

She is survived by a Step-Son, Mr. Gregory Hinkle, of Los Angeles, California. Several cousins of the Bay area, and many many friends and the loving church family of the McGlothen Temple and a loving Pastor, Elder Clarance Davis.
